Communication skills

I am an extrovert and sociable person. Thus, i have got good communication skills. I have worked as a volunteer for the different non-profit organizations in women and children welfare so i find it easy to explain my ideas and opinions towards people and can possibly relate to their views.

Organisational / managerial skills

Although, I do not have experience in professional IT environment. But, as I have worked as a volunteer in an organization within a team. So, I am capable of working in a team and also am able to lead a team.

Regarding leadership, I always take a quote in my mind "A boss is the one who says 'Go' and the leader is the one who says 'Let's Go' .

Job-related skills

Regarding my IT field, I believe, you are always a learner here so I categorised myself as a learner of programming world. Currently, I am trying to master as a Java developer. Along with Java, I have kept my hands on PHP, JavaScript, JQuery, AJAX HTML, CSS , Sql database, NoSql database, MongoDB , AngularJS, Node.js for several school and free lance projects. I am also well known about MVW frameworks and various software design patterns.
